GOLDEN WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Stoolmiller Celebrate.

Three Hundred Guests Were Present on the Occasion.

Monday, July 2, will long remain a green spot in the memories of the 300 guests who gathered at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Stoolmiller, in Chilpeva township.

The occasion was the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding day and a large circle of friends, gladdened the event by their presence, and substantial tokens of love and esteem were brought for this worthy couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Stoolmiller attended mass and received Holy communion in the morning at the place where they have worshipped for many years. As they came out of church, they were met by the Fulton band, whose sweet strains reminded the happy couple of the fifty years of constant companionship, made holy by unwavering confidence in one another. Accompanied by the band, they drove to their home to find it and the pretty surroundings filled with a laughing, joyous throng of people, all intent on making the day a happy one. The house was beautifully decorated with cut flowers, potted plants, ferns and wild grasses, and a wealth of bunting, emblematic of this golden time in life's journey, met the eye at every turn. Over the gate was a large arch in evergreen from which hung the word "Welcome," and all acquainted with this generous couple knew full well the magic meaning of this word. The tables were loaded with all that the market affords, and while the guests were satisfying the wants of the inner man, the band, from a platform in the orchard, was discoursing the latest selections. After dinner all gathered in the orchard and Father Gerhartstein, in well selected language, delivered an address appropriate for an occasion such as this. He drew many pretty lessons from a married life of fifty years and exhorted his hearers to a Godly life as being necessary to bring peace in this life and the world to come. At the conclusion of this address, the guests proceeded to the barn where the big double floor had been prepared for dancing, and old and young spent a couple of hours enjoying the Terpsichorean art. The table in the spacious dining room was filled with many beautiful and costly presents from loving relatives and friends, and as admiring eyes gazed upon them, one could in imagination look back upon the event of fifty years previous, when these twin started the journey of life, their only capital being integrity and a will to win life's battles. As the shades of evening drew near, many came to wish them God speed and many more years of unalloyed happiness.

Thus ended the golden anniversary of Anthony and Mary Stoolmiller, whose happy hours and relatives and friends were spent in thanksgiving and a renewal of the vows of a half century before.

Mr. and Mrs. Stoolmiller are the parents of fourteen children, six of whom are dead. They also have thirteen grandchildren living.

Wheeling People Here.

A party of people from Wheeling, W. Va., en route to Chautauque laid over in Akron for dinner Thursday. There were 75 in the party. They went out on the Erie in the afternoon.

HERE AT HOME

Akron Citizens Gladly Testify.

It is testimony like the following that has placed "the little conqueror" so far above competitors. When people right here at home raise their voice in praise there is no room left for doubt. Read the public statement of an Akron citizen:

Mr. Robert Thompson, of 119 North Howard st., says: "My back was the source of a great deal of misery to me. I could hardly move about from lameness across the loins, and I suffered from irregular action of the kidney secretions which greatly embarrassed me; headaches were common and at times I was bothered with dizziness. After getting Doan's Kidney Pills from Lamparter & Co.'s drug store on South Howard st., and taking them I had no headache, the difficulty with the kidney secretions disappeared. I slept well and if it had not been for a bronchial trouble I would have been perfectly well."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.
Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

HEALTH OFFICER
